Minutes:

Welcome, review agenda, announcements &, community check in Introduce Todd Bloomquist

Would like to see how Ford Family Foundation could support CCR and be a thought partner
Worked in education for 31 years and been part of Southern Oregon Success and contributed to its development

An ACE certified trainer and would like to help other trainers

Ford Family Foundation has funds for CCR when needed

Has supported a lot of the work in Jackson and Josephine County and would like to expand to Douglas County

Ron asked question of Todd's perspective on recommendations for CCR: helping adults with meeting their needs and trauma-informed practices, slow things down and focus on relational aspect, grow collective impact, self-healing communities approach, start conversations with parents to get their voice in these efforts, seek and find ways to connect : Parent Advisory Group (community buy-in, feedback, and data sharing), consider looking into the process of growing these efforts in a sustainable way

Approval of Minutes Dec. & Jan.

Ron Breyne motioned to approve December and January minutes and Mckenzy Gausnell seconded the motion. Minutes approved.

Grant Updates: CHIP 2023-will hear in March
CHIP grant will help CCR support agencies with events

Social Media Campaign

Started contract with Ruby Slipper started this month

Working with them on Instagram and Facebook

Action Item: Would like to get quotes from people who have been involved with CCR since the beginning and photos for facebook and instagram

Julie could share some of the pictures from their campaign of children in their programs

Melanie thinks we should get a picture of the Tyoga Bridge that inspired the logo

Ron: letters of support for the Oregon Youth Health Corps

Roundhouse Foundation is looking for letters of support for Phoenix School's Oregon Youth Health Corps.

Science classes would be geared toward health science, NEAR sciences, and other skills to assist with employment

Funds would help provide trainings and resources to build capacity for a trauma-informed workforce

Action Item: Need letters by end of February

FARA Application

FARA has applied to become a member agency

Action Item: Looking for volunteer interview panel to review application: Rachel will work with Elizabeth to send an email to convene the interview

Robert: works with around 200 clients a week in therapy, safe families program, and other services, with clients' average ACE score of 5+

CCR/Phoenix Charter School Wellness Expo-4/26

Event funded by the CCR tobacco prevention grant

Focus on all things wellness in a conference setting

Provide trainings throughout the night in different classrooms

In the beginning phases of planning and are inviting all of the agencies present today

Providing free food to families with Thrive Umpqua and UC Veg

Wednesday, April 26th from 4-7 PM at Phoenix Charter School

Healthy Kids Day at YMCA and Celebrating Kids Day at Wildlife Safari that Saturday - considering changing these days

LL&C -

February 2nd: Stalking Awareness-Peace at Home

-raising awareness and helping support survivors

March 2nd: Problem Gambling 101- Adapt Integrated Health Care

-raising awareness and educating the community

April 6th: Child Abuse Prevention/Sexual Assault

-might invite Eli Cox from Oregon Sexual Assault Task Force

-might combine LL&C to include sexual assault prevention and child abuse prevention

Training Team -

-Trainings schedule for Feb. & March

ACES trainings(3rd Thursday) and Self-regulation and Resilience (4th Thursday)

Also offer trainings in the evening for parents to attend

Action Item: The goal is to be amazing

-1st Help that Helps Training: Feb. 28th

For agencies that are interested in providing this training to clients

Take Root Parenting Hub and Douglas CARES are interested in helping provide evening trainings for parents to bring children

In-person Meetings starting in April?

Hybrid trainings

Better for connecting with group

Liability is decreasing

Public health officials are easing up on precautions
Virtual option allows for people to attend/ facilitators that are in areas where transportation is a barrier
Action Item: Continue with hybrid option starting April 2023
Considering record trainings/presentation to archive main points and highlights for youtube and resource library
Consider including audio on podcast channel

Vaccination Outreach:

OHA vaccine bags
Still have vaccine grant until June
Providing education and resilience around vaccine
Have bags that can be handed out at events with masks, thermometers, hot cold packs, and materials in english and spanish

Action Item: give agency materials/brochures to Rachel if you would like them included in the bags

Use funds for other OHA Resilience is a Journey activities
Will get update for next biennium on if we can continue funds

CCR- podcasts update

Bryan suggested that we record zoom session for audio and video options for sharing
Work with Education and Outreach Committee to build process/capacity, and define scope for podcast and youtube channels:

CCR backbone agency applications- Due 3/1/23

Phoenix has been the backbone agency for several years
Applications are open every other year for a new backbone agency
No one has applied yet
Phoenix intends to apply
Tides Center is the fiscal agent for Protect Our Children and serves as a temporary fund holder for non-profits and coalitions that are growing or transitioning

2023-2024 Fiscal Standpoint for next meeting
OHA funding should be available this summer
Will have fiscal standpoint available next meeting
Review next steps & upcoming meetings

Writing letters of support for Phoenix School
Schedule interview for FARA
Consider changing date of Wellness Expo
Evening Parent Trainings starting in April-work with Douglas CARES and Take Root Parenting Hub
Get brochures and information for OHA vaccine bags
March 8th is the next CCR Leadership meeting
-same day as Erin's Law Workshop, might change date
Connect with schools about Help That Helps Trainings
